

Membership Benefits and Rights Policy

All members are entitled to the following benefits:

- (i) One (1) free admission per year to a Learning Seminar of their choice
- (ii) Discount on all other seminars and events, with the exception of the Executive Training session.
- (iii) Subscriptions to customized newsletters & industry specific topics
- (iv) Participate on CCGI committees, research studies and policy proposals
- (v) Invitations to exclusive, members only networking or social events

All members shall have the following rights:

- i. to make reasonable use of the property of CCGI in accordance with the rules and regulations established by CCGI from time to time.
- ii. to attend the Annual General, and Special General Meetings of CCGI ;
- iii. to nominate or second candidates to the Board of Directors
- iv. to stand for election to the Board of Directors
- v. to elect the board of directors;
- vi. to attend all meetings of the Board of Directors except those designated by the Board of Directors to be in-camera
- vii. to participate in various programmes and seminars organised by CCGI subject to the conditions established for the events;
- viii. to vote on all issues presented by the board of directors for the vote of the membership;
- ix. to receive correspondence from CCGI ; and
- x. to work with CCGI to achieve its objectives.